

Fall 2009

Black and White Project Space seeks site-specific exhibition proposals of high artistic merit that use diverse mediums in innovative ways to be presented from September to November, 2009 at our Williamsburg location. All proposals will be reviewed by April 30, 2009 and the final award will be announced by May 31, 2009. Deadline for submissions is March 31, 2009.

Black & White Project Space is a not-for-profit organization committed to production, presentation and promotion of site-specific installations that are under-represented in commercial galleries because of their scope, content, or production cost.

Black & White Project Space will prominently feature site specific installations stressing the links between the indoor and outdoor environments by dedicating the entire space to a single artist or artist collective for a period of 3 months.

Available facilities:

Black & White Project Space is a 2500 square foot exhibition space equally divided between the indoor and outdoor galleries. Visit www.blackandwhiteprojectspace.org/bwps_rfp.html to view our facilities.
