

2008 – 2009 season
Fall 2008 / Spring 2009

Black and White Project Space seeks site-specific exhibition proposals of high artistic merit that use diverse mediums in innovative ways to be presented in our Williamsburg location in the fall of 2008 and spring of 2009. All proposals will be reviewed by May of 2008, and artists will be notified by early summer of 2008.

Black & White Gallery's mission is to cultivate promising artists in the initial and more advanced phases of their careers exploring contemporary themes and concepts through multiple mediums. In addition to developing its core program in Chelsea, Black & White Project Space presents ambitious site-specific work at the Williamsburg location.

Eligibility:

Artists, art co-ops and collectives are eligible to submit proposals.

Available facilities:

Black & White Project Space is a 2500 square foot exhibition space equally divided between the indoor and outdoor galleries.

Deadline for applications: May 31, 2008.

Award Notification: July 1, 2008.
